Melody, bad news. Additional counties have been added. Will you update the map you did for me and include these additional sites?

thanks

Hi Katrina, See if this map will work for you. The Houston inset is rather large, but I wanted to make sure the sites were discernable. Let me know of any changes or additions you would like to make. I'll be glad to do them!
Melody

I will start it right now. Is page size 17"x11" ok?

Melody, will you please create a map for me that shows the states of Texas and Louisiana and identifies the site located in the federally listed counties?

thanks
